Profit Under Pressure

Discover how to get you and your dental practice unstuck, unshackled and unleashed.

The pressure isn't going to go away. What if you could discover how to not only perform under pressure but profit under pressure as well? Freddie Bennett's unique outlook and life experiences will give you the roadmap to achieve financial, physical, mental, and emotional success when the pressure is on. You'll learn how to achieve success through subtraction - how to achieve more by stripping away the deadwood; without adding another level of actions to manage. Plus, Freddie will show you the peak performance secret which allows you to achieve more, especially on the bad days - so you can work amongst the chaos and achieve the results, regardless of the disruption around you.

After this internationally acclaimed presentation:

- You'll see things differently
- You'll think differently
- You'll ask better questions...of others and yourself
