Sealing cracks!

Learn practical ways to incorporate special care dentistry into your practice and provide compassionate, inclusive care for all patients. Together, we can make a lasting impact on those who need it most.

Speaker: Beatrice Ng

Beatrice was born and raised in Borneo, Malaysia and later relocated to New Zealand to pursue her specialist training. She attained a clinical doctoral degree in Special Needs Dentistry from the University of Otago. Beatrice then worked in the specialty at Christchurch Hospital before eventually settling in Tauranga. Beatrice provides private and public Special Care Dentistry services under Tauranga Special Care Dentistry, Te Whatu Ora Hauora a Toi Bay of Plenty and Te Toka Tumai Auckland. Beatrice has a passion for improving the oral health of those with higher health needs and finds fulfilment in helping patients to improve their quality of life.
